

#7
SUPREME COURT OF JUDICATURE
OF TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO

PRACTICE DIRECTION

PRACTICE—Attorneys-at-Law—Mode of Dress in Court—Order 1 rule 10(2) of the Orders and Rules of the Supreme Court of Judicature of Trinidad and Tobago.

It is notified for the information of all legal practitioners that with the coming into force of the Legal Profession Act all Attorneys-at-Law who appear in open court must, as from the operative date of the Act, to wit, 1st January, 1987, appear in the attire now worn by Barristers-at-Law.

In open court in addition to a black gown and white band the male practitioner should wear a pair of sober trousers and a black jacket and the female should be clad in black or grey attire preferably the former.

In the Chamber and Master's Courts the practitioner should be in sober attire such as for example black, grey, blue, white, brown.

Dated this 8th day of December, 1986.

CLINTON A. BERNARD
Chief Justice.
