

Bio for Terrence Farrell

Terrence W. Farrell obtained his Ph.D (Economics) in 1979 from the University of Toronto, and also holds an LL.B (London) degree and the LEC from the Hugh Wooding Law School. A former Deputy Governor of the Central Bank of Trinidad and Tobago, he is admitted to practice law in Barbados and in Trinidad and Tobago and is also a Certified Mediator. He is a Fellow of the Institute of Banking and Finance of Trinidad and Tobago, a Member of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and a member of the Caribbean Corporate Governance Institute. He has published several scholarly articles in Economics, written Central Banking in Trinidad and Tobago, and co-edited Caribbean Monetary Integration. His book The Underachieving Society: Development Policy and Strategy in Trinidad and Tobago, 1958-2008 was published in 2012. His latest book We Like It So? Cultural Roots of Economic Underachievement in Trinidad and Tobago was published in February 2017. He has served on several government-appointed committees addressing various public policy issues, including the Vision 2020 Core Group, the Task Force on the Future of BWIA and the State Enterprise Review Committee. He is currently the Chairman of the Economic Development Advisory Board.