

IMPORTANT NOTICE !

The Chief Justice has issued a Practice Direction to guide the public and other stakeholders about the operations of the Court.

Until Monday 20th April, 2020 inclusive, members of the public are NOT to come to Court unless:

- The Court contacts either you or your attorney and directs that you are to attend Court
- You have a domestic violence matter
- You want to make an application for a domestic violence order
- You have an URGENT custody application
- You have a maintenance application
- You want to make a maintenance application
- You have a case under the Proceeds of Crime Act including detention and forfeiture of cash
- You want to make another URGENT application that cannot wait
- You want to switch to CourtPay to pay or receive your maintenance

If you have to come to Court but you are ill, caring for someone who is ill or in a high-risk category as stated by the Ministry of Health or the Judiciary, you should stay at home and ask for an adjournment.

To adjourn your matter, call the relevant Court Office or contact the Registrar of the Supreme Court or a Magistracy Registrar within the District Courts by sending an e-mail to covid.response.public@ttlawcourt.org.

Be prepared to give full information and look out for your new date.
