Statement on Video Recordings of an Incident at the Legal Aid and Advisory Authority

The Law Association of Trinidad and Tobago (the Association) is aware of video recordings circulating on social media of an incident on 11 November 2026 at the Port of Spain Head Office of the Legal Aid and Advisory Authority (LAAA), involving a person who appears to be an Attorney-at-Law.

The Association has engaged with the LAAA and is gathering the relevant facts. Attorneys-at-Law are bound by the Code of Ethics under the Legal Profession Act, Chap. 90:03, and the Association takes seriously any conduct that may affect public confidence in the legal profession. The Association also recognises that every member is entitled to fairness and due process.

In fairness to all concerned, and as the matter may be the subject of other proceedings, the Association will make no further comment at this time.
